

Cookies Policy

What are cookies?

A cookie is a file that is downloaded on your computer when you access certain websites. Among other things, cookies let a website store and retrieve information on the browsing habits of a user or his/her computer and, depending on the information they contain and the way he or she uses his/her computer, they may be used to recognize the user. The user's browser stores cookies in the hard disk drive only during the current session, occupying minimum memory space and causing no harm to the computer.

Cookies do not contain any kind of specific personal information, and most of them are erased from the hard disk drive at the end of the browser session (so-called session cookies).

What types of cookies are there?

Technical cookies

These are cookies that allow the user to browse a website, platform or app and use the different options or services they provide, such as controlling data traffic and communication, identifying the session, accessing restricted areas, recalling elements that make up an order, carrying out the order purchase process, apply for registration or participation in an event, use security elements during browsing, store content for the dissemination of videos or sound or share content through social media.

Personalization cookies

These are cookies that allow the user access to the service with certain predefined general characteristics based on a series of criteria in the user's computer such as the language, type of browser used to access the service, regional set-up from which the service is accessed, etc.

Analysis cookies

These are cookies processed either by us or by third parties that allow us to quantify the number of users and thus permit the measurement and statistical analysis of the use that users make of the service offered. To do this, your browsing of our website is analysis in order to improve the range of products or services that we offer you.

Advertising cookies

These are cookies processed either by us or by third parties that allow us to manage as efficiently as possible the advertising spaces offered on our website, by matching the content of the ad to the content of the requested service or the use that you make of our website. To do this we may analyse your Internet browsing habits and show you ads related to your browsing profile.

Behavioural advertising cookies

These are cookies that permit the management, in the most efficient way possible, of any advertising spaces the editor has included in a website, app or platform from which the requested service is provided. These cookies store information on users' behaviours obtained through continued observation of their browsing habits, which makes it possible to develop a specific profile to show ads according to that profile.

Third-party cookies

This website may use third-party services that gather information for statistical purposes on the use of the site by the user and for the provision of other services related to the website's activity and other Internet services.
